MIKE TOMLIN

Head Coach

YEARS WITH STEELERS: 15

NFL EXPERIENCE: 21

Mike Tomlin was named the 16th head coach in Pittsburgh Steelers history on January 22, 2007. Hired at the age of 34, Tomlin became only the third head coach hired by the Steelers since 1969.

In his 14 seasons as head coach for the Pittsburgh Steelers, Tomlin has accomplished many things that have never been done in the team's storied history. A franchise known for stability at the head coaching position, Tomlin ranks among the League's longest-tenured active head coaches entering the 2021 season.

Tomlin became the youngest head coach in NFL history to both coach in and win a Super Bowl when he led the Steelers to a 27-23 victory over the Arizona Cardinals in Super Bowl XLIII (36 years, 323 days). By winning the Super Bowl in only his second season as a head coach, he also became the fastest to win a Super Bowl title in Steelers history.

In his 14 years as head coach of the Steelers, Tomlin has led Pittsburgh to seven AFC North titles, most recently in 2020, and has guided the Steelers to the playoffs nine times, including two trips to the Super Bowl (XLIII and XLV). Tomlin has won at least five home games in each of his first 14 years, including seven out of eight regular season home wins in 2020.

Tomlin has sent a total of 66 selections to the NFL's annual Pro Bowl, including the five players who received Pro Bowl honors for the 2020 season. Additionally, Tomlin was appointed by Commissioner Roger Goodell to the NFL's Competition Committee in March 2013.

Tomlin is one of only eight coaches in League history to win a Super Bowl within his first two seasons as an NFL head coach. He is the only head coach in Steelers history to lead the team to two Super Bowls in his first four seasons at the helm, including an appearance against the Green Bay Packers in Super Bowl XLV. He is one of only two Steelers head coaches to win three division titles in his first four seasons.

Tomlin has led Pittsburgh to a 145-78-1 record in the regular season since becoming the team's head coach in 2007 - the second-best record in the NFL during that time span. His 145-78-1 regular-season record (.650) is the best start in franchise history.

In 2020, Tomlin became one of just two head coaches in NFL history to begin a head coaching tenure with at least 14 consecutive non-losing seasons - joining Marty Schottenheimer (14, 1984-97). The Steelers began the season with an 11-0 win-streak, which culminated in a 12-4 regular-season record and Tomlin's ninth AFC North title. The 11-game winning streak (9/14/20-12/2/20) tied the longest regular season winning streak in franchise history. Over the past six seasons (2013-20), Tomlin has led the team to a 26-13 record in the month of December/January.

The Steelers offense dramatically improved in 2020, scoring at least 24 points in 11 regular season games after hitting the mark just five times in 2019. However, it was Pittsburgh's defense that once again showed its teeth, either topping or sharing the league lead in 20 different defensive categories including tackles for loss (103), sacks (56.0), interceptions (18), passes defended (84), quarterback pressures (198), defensive completion percentage (56.7%) and opposing QB rating (76.7). The unit also finished second in takeaways (27) and third in scoring defense (19.5).

Finishing the regular season as the AFC's No. 3 seed, Pittsburgh produced five Pro Bowlers - offensive linemen Maurkice Pouncey and David DeCastro and defenders Minkah Fitzpatrick, Cameron Heyward and T.J. Watt - marking the fourth consecutive season in which at least five Steelers were named to the Pro Bowl.

Pittsburgh was beset with injuries in 2019. The Steelers lost quarterback Ben Roethlisberger with a season-ending elbow injury in Week 2. Running back James Conner missed six games, wide receiver Juju Smith-Schuster missed four games, and was sidelined for the majority of two others, and defensive end Stephon Tuitt missed the final 10 games of the season. Even backups - quarterback Mason Rudolph and running back Jaylen Samuels missed multiple games. Starting center Maurkice Pouncey missed three games. Starting left guard Ramon Foster and starting tight end Vance McDonald were both sidelined two games for concussions. Undrafted rookie free-agent Devlin Hodges was forced to play in eight games (six starts), and, despite an 0-3 start, Tomlin still led Pittsburgh to a record of 8-8.

Despite injuries, Pittsburgh's defense led or tied for the League-lead in sacks (54.0), quarterback hits (117), takeaways (36), fumble recoveries (17) and rush TDs allowed (7). The Steelers also ranked among the NFL's top-five in interceptions (2nd, 20), interception rate (2nd, 3.89%), passing defense (3rd, 194.6), yards per play allowed (3rd, 4.74), passes defended (3rd, 83), yards per rush allowed (3rd, 3.79), forced fumbles (t-3rd, 19), tackles for loss (t-3rd, 90), opposing passer rating (4th, 80.7), pass yards per attempt allowed (4th, 6.06), total defense (5th, 304.1), scoring defense (t-5th, 28.9) and offensive TDs allowed (5th, 30).

During the 2019 season, Tomlin reached 125 career wins in the fewest games (192) in team history, tying him with Bud Grant for the fifth-fewest games by an NFL head coach to secure 125 regular season wins. He was the third head coach in NFL history with 133 or more regular season wins in their first 13 seasons as a head coach, joining Tony Dungy: 139 and Shula: 138.

Tomlin led the Steelers to a record of 96-1 in 2018. With a Week 5 win against Atlanta, he and quarterback Ben Roethlisberger broke a tie with Chuck Noll and Terry Bradshaw for the most wins by a head coach-quarterback tandem in franchise history. The duo's 127 regular-season wins (2007-20) are now third-most by a head coach-quarterback pairing in NFL history, trailing only the tandems of Sean Payton/Drew Brees and Bill Belichick/Tom Brady.

Roethlisberger set single-season franchise records for touchdown passes (34), pass completions (452) and passing yards (5,129) in 2018, while leading all NFL players in pass completions and passing yardage. Wide receiver Antonio Brown led the NFL with a single-season franchise record 15 TD catches. Brown and second-year wide receiver Juju Smith-Schuster also made history, becoming the sixth wide receiver duo in NFL history and first in Steelers history to record 100 receptions and 1,000 yards apiece in a single season. Smith-Schuster was voted Team MVP for his breakout year.

With Tomlin at the helm, six Steelers were named to the Pro Bowl for their 2018 performances - the third consecutive season with at least five selections. Brown, running back James Conner, defensive tackle Cameron Heyward and offensive linemen DeCastro, Maurkice Pouncey and Villanueva all received Pro Bowl accolades.

In 2017, Tomlin led the Steelers to a 13-3 record, including a 6-0 record against the AFC North, securing his sixth division title and a No. 2 seed in the AFC for the postseason. The team's 13 wins marked the most wins in a single season in the Tomlin era.

Under Tomlin's guidance, Roethlisberger became the eighth quarterback in NFL history to reach 50,000 passing yards, finishing the 2017 season with a career total of 51,065. Brown was voted team MVP for his outstanding performance and became the first Steeler to earn the honor four times (2011, '13, '15 and '17). Brown led the league with 4,533 receiving yards and set an NFL record for the most receptions (582) and receiving yards (7,848) by a player in any five-year span in League history. For the second straight season, running back Le'Veon Bell led the AFC in scrimmage yards per game (129.7) and sur-passed his own Steelers single-season record for receptions by a running back with 85. Defensively, the team led the NFL and set a Steelers single-season record with 56 sacks in 2017.

For their efforts, Roethlisberger, Brown and Bell were named to the Pro Bowl along with kicker Chris Boswell, linebacker Ryan Shazier, and offensive linemen DeCastro, Maurkice Pouncey and Villanueva. Brown, Bell and DeCastro were also named AP All-Pro, along with Heyward. Heyward and fullback Roosevelt Nix were also added to the Pro Bowl roster prior to the game.

The Steelers finished with an 11-5 record in 2016, and won each of the team's final seven regular-season games, to secure the AFC North title and No. 3 seed in the AFC for the postseason. It marked the fifth time Tomlin led the Steelers to at least 11 wins in the regular season. Pittsburgh won its first two postseason games, vs. Miami in an AFC Wild Card Game and at Kansas City in an AFC Divisional Playoff, before falling to the New England Patriots in the AFC Championship Game.

Bell was voted the Steelers' MVP for his 2016 efforts. He led the NFL in scrimmage yards per game (157.0), and he became the fastest player in NFL history to reach 3,000 rushing yards and 1,500 receiving yards in his career (38 games). In the Steelers' Week 14 victory at Buffalo in 2016, Bell set the single-game team record with 236 rushing yards and tied the single-game team mark with three rushing TDs.

Roethlisberger and Brown continued to etch their names in NFL history. Roethlisberger finished the season with the ninth-most passing TDs in NFL history (301) and the 10th-most passing yards in NFL history (46,814). Brown set numerous NFL records, including one for the most receptions in a player's first 100 career regular-season games (622) and one for the most receptions in NFL history by a player in any four-year span (481).

Tomlin also reached his 100th career win in 2016 and did so in the fewest games (157) in team history. He became the eighth head coach in NFL history to reach 100 regular-season wins in their first 10 seasons.

Despite significant injuries to multiple starters during the 2015 season, the Steelers finished with a 10-6 record (2nd in the AFC North) and advanced to the Divisional Round of the playoffs. The Steelers finished third in the NFL in total offense (1st in the AFC), while the defense posted 48 sacks under first-year defensive coordinator Keith Butler. The 48 sacks were the third most in the NFL in 2015.

In 2014, Tomlin orchestrated one of the top offensive outputs in team history. The Steelers broke numerous offensive records, including points scored (436), total yards (6,577), passing yards per game (301.6) and total first downs (379). On an individual basis in 2014, Tomlin guided Roethlisberger, Brown and Bell — who all made the Pro Bowl — to record-setting years.

Arguably one of his best coaching performances may have come in the second half of the 2013 season. Despite an 0-4 and 2-6 start to the season, the Steelers finished the regular season surging to a 6-2 second-half record, falling just short of the playoffs.

In 2012, Tomlin led the Steelers to a 27-10 victory over the New York Jets in the home opener, becoming the first coach in team history to win his first six home games. The Steelers finished the season with the top-ranked overall defense (275.8 yards/game) and finished first in passing defense (185.2 yards/game).

In 2011, Tomlin led the Steelers to a 12-4 record, marking the second straight season the team posted 12 wins, which was only the second time in team history it had been achieved. The Steelers finished the season with the top-ranked total defense (271.8 ypg) and scoring defense (14.2 ppg). Pittsburgh posted a 7-1 record at home in 2011, for the second time in Tomlin's career (2007). He also had five players (Roethlisberger, Mike Wallace, Pouncey, Troy Polamalu and Brown) selected to the Pro Bowl following the season.

Tomlin's seven road wins during the 2010 regular season tied a Steelers record previously set in 1978 and 2004. The Steelers finished second in total offense under Tomlin's guidance in 2010, allowing only 276.8 yards per game. Pittsburgh led the NFL and set a team record in rushing defense, yielding only 62.8 yards per game (1,004 yards), the third-best total in NFL history dating back to 1970. The Steelers also established an NFL record in 2010 by not allowing an opponent to rush for more than 75 yards in any of their first eight games during the regular season.

In all, the Steelers' defense led the NFL in 2010 in rushing yards allowed (62.8 yds./game), points allowed (232), touchdowns allowed (22), quarterback sacks (48), rushing average (3.0), yards per play (4.5) and yards allowed on first down (4.08). It finished second in the league in passing average (6.31), turnover advantage (+14) and red-zone efficiency (40.0, tied).

Under Tomlin, the Steelers broke new ground on offense in 2009. Pittsburgh's offense ranked seventh in the NFL (ninth passing, 19th rushing) but became the first unit in team history to boast a 4,000-yard passer (Roethlisberger), two 1,000-yard receivers (Hines Ward, Antonio Holmes) and a 1,000-yard rusher (Rashard Mendenhall) in the same season. Pittsburgh's defense ranked fifth in the NFL (third vs. run, 16th vs. pass) while leading the AFC and finishing one shy of the NFL lead with 47 quarterback sacks.

The Steelers continued to be dominant at Heinz Field under Tomlin in 2009. Pittsburgh finished with a 6-2 home record after finishing 7-1 (2007) and 6-2 (2008) at home during Tomlin's first two seasons.

Tomlin finished the 2008 season with a 12-4 record and his second consecutive AFC North Division title, becoming the only Steelers head coach to win division crowns in each of his first two seasons. He also set a record with 22 regular-season wins in his first two years at the helm and is the only Steelers head coach to win at least 10 games in each of his first two seasons. Tomlin's .688 winning percentage (22-10) after two years is the best in Steelers history.

The Steelers' defense was dominant under Tomlin's guidance in 2008, leading the NFL in total defense (237.2), pass defense (156.9), points per game (13.9), total yards per play (3.9), rushing yards per attempt (3.3), passing yards per attempt (4.7) and third-down efficiency (31.4), while finishing second in rush defense (80.3).

Tomlin led the Steelers to a 10-6 record in 2007 and became just the second coach in team history to post a winning record, win a division title and earn a playoff berth in his inaugural season. Tomlin began his head coaching career by becoming only the second Steelers head coach to win his first three games. During 2007, the Steelers became just the fifth team in NFL history to win their first four home games by at least 20 points.

Tomlin guided the Steelers to the NFL's top-ranked defense in 2007, yielding only 266.4 yards per game. The Steelers' defense ranked third in the NFL against both the run (89.9 avg.) and the pass (176.5 avg.), and finished third in the league in total yards allowed per play (4.6). Pittsburgh's defense led the NFL in passing yards per play (5.7) and first downs allowed per game (15.6), and finished second in the league in points allowed per game (16.8).

The Steelers' offense finished third in the NFL in rushing (135.5 avg.) during Tomlin's first season, sparked by Willie Parker, who led the league in rushing before injuring his leg in Week 16. Roethlisberger enjoyed a record-setting season during Tomlin's first year, establishing new team records for TD passes (32) and passer rating (104.1) while earning his first career Pro Bowl appearance.

Tomlin was the NFL's second-youngest head coach in 2007, and he became only the second Steelers coach in team history to win at least 10 games during his first year at the helm. The Steelers posted a 7-1 record at home in 2007 and were 5-1 in the AFC North (3-0 at home).

Tomlin spent the 2006 season as the Minnesota Vikings' defensive coordinator. That season, the Vikings ranked eighth in the NFL in total defense and first against the run while not allowing a 100-yard rusher the entire season.

Tomlin was the defensive backs coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers from 2001-05. In 2002, Tomlin guided one of the most productive defensive backfields in the NFL, culminating with its performance in Super Bowl XXXVII. The secondary recorded four of the team's five interceptions, returning two for touchdowns, to help Tampa Bay capture the franchise's first Super Bowl title.

Before joining Tampa Bay's staff, Tomlin served two seasons as the defensive backs coach at the University of Cincinnati (1999-00). He took over a secondary that ranked 111th in the nation in pass defense in 1998 and helped them improve to 61st overall in his first season. Under Tomlin's direction in 2000, the Bearcats ranked eighth in the nation in interceptions as well as fourth nationally in total turnovers.

Prior to joining the Cincinnati staff, Tomlin had a short stint on the coaching staff at Tennessee-Martin and then spent two seasons at Arkansas State, coaching wide receivers in 1997 before switching to defensive backs in 1998.

Tomlin spent the 1996 season as a graduate assistant at the University of Memphis, where he worked with the Tiger defensive backs and special teams units. He began his coaching career in 1995 as wide receivers coach at Virginia Military Institute.

Tomlin was a three-year starter at wide receiver at William & Mary (1990-94) and finished his career with 101 receptions for 2,054 yards and 20 TD catches. A first-team All-Yankee Conference selection in 1994, he established a school record with a 20.2 yards-per-catch average.

Tomlin is very active in the community and was recognized, along with his wife Kiya, in February 2013, by the Chuck Cooper Foundation with the Career Achievement in Leadership Diversity and Community Service Award. Tomlin also participates in the annual ManUp Pittsburgh conference which encourages local men to be better fathers and role models.

JOHN MITCHELL

Assistant Head Coach

NFL EXPERIENCE: 31

John Mitchell, the longest-tenured member of the Steelers' coaching staff, will enter his 28th season with the franchise in 2021 having served as the team's defensive line coach from 1994-2006, before being named assistant head coach/defensive line (2007-17). He was promoted to assistant head coach in 2018.

As assistant head coach, Mitchell oversees staff development among the coaching staff, works with current and former players in career development, and assists Head Coach Mike Tomlin in community-related events.

Mitchell joined the Steelers' coaching staff on January 31, 1994, and holds 49 seasons of coaching, including 15 years at the college level and two in the United States Football League.

Over Mitchell's 24-year tenure as Pittsburgh's defensive line coach, the Steelers' defensive front helped the team lead the NFL in rush defense five times and finish in the top-10 in the League a total of 18 times. The team only allowed one 100-yard rusher for a stretch of 50 straight regular-season games from 2007-10, and in 2010, the defense allowed only 62.8 rushing yards per game. That figure is a team record and is the 13th-lowest average in a single season out of any NFL team since the 1970 AFL merger.

In 2017, defensive team captain and defensive end Cameron Heyward led the Steelers' defense and tied for third among AFC defensive linemen with a single-season career-best 12.0 sacks and was named AFC Defensive Player of the Week twice. Heyward was named to the 2018 Pro Bowl and received Associated Press All-Pro First-Team honors.

The defensive line—Heyward, Tyson Alualu, Javon Hargrave, Stephon Tuitt and L.T. Walton—combined for 23.0 of the Steelers' single-season franchise record and NFL-leading 56.0 sacks in 2017.

During the 2016 season, Mitchell's defensive line suffered a huge loss when Heyward suffered a pectoral injury Week 10 vs. Dallas and was lost for the remainder of the season. Heyward had led the team or tied for the team lead in sacks the previous two seasons (2014-15).

In Heyward's absence, Tuitt and rookie Hargrave stepped up in a big way. Tuitt recorded 4.0 sacks in the team's final six regular-season games. Including the post-season, Hargrave totaled 3.0 sacks and one fumble recovery, which he recovered in the end zone for a touchdown Week 11 at Cleveland.

In 2015, the Steelers finished fifth in the League in rush defense, allowing 92.1 yards per game to opponents. Pittsburgh also tied for the second-fewest rushing first downs allowed (71) in the NFL and yielded six rushing TDs, the second fewest in the NFL on the season.

Heyward led the team in sacks for the second consecutive season, marking the first time since 2003-04 that a defensive lineman led the team or tied for the team lead in sacks two-straight seasons. Tuitt finished second on the team with a career-high 6.5 sacks in 2015.

Heyward and Tuitt finishing first and second on the team in sacks marked the first time in team history since 1990 that two Steelers' defensive linemen finished first and second on the team in sacks.

Heyward set a career-high with 7.5 sacks in 2014, tying for the team lead, as he became the first defensive lineman since 2004 (Aaron Smith) to lead or tie for the team lead in sacks in a single season. He also led the team with 21 quarterback pressures.

The Steelers' defensive line guided the group to tops in the NFL in total defense and second in rush defense, giving up 90.6 rushing yards per game in 2012. Defensive end Brett Keisel led the team with a career-high 40 quarterback pressures. He also led the line with 58 tackles and had the second-most sacks (4.5) in a single season in his career.

In 2011, the Steelers defense continued to dominate opposing offenses, only giving up 4.5 yards per play, 271.8 yards per game and 14.2 points per game, ranking first in the NFL in all three categories. Pittsburgh put on a defensive showcase in 2010 by leading the NFL in at least eight categories, including total sacks (48) and fewest points allowed (232). They became the first team in NFL history to hold their opponents to 75 or fewer rushing yards in each of their first eight games.

In 2009, Pittsburgh's defense ranked fifth in the NFL while leading the AFC and finishing one shy of the NFL lead with 47.0 sacks. Mitchell was instrumental in the development of five-time Pro Bowler Casey Hampton, who became the first Steelers defensive lineman to be named Steelers MVP or Co-MVP since Hall of Famer Joe Greene in 1970. Strong play by Mitchell's line was a huge reason why the Steelers finished the 2008 regular season second overall in the NFL against the run.

Mitchell was hired to the Pittsburgh Steelers coaching staff following three seasons as the defensive line coach for the Cleveland Browns. Mitchell joined the NFL ranks in 1991 with the Browns, where he tutored two Pro Bowl defensive tackles, Michael Dean Perry and Rob Burnett.

In 1983, after 10 years of coaching college ball, Mitchell made his first move to the professional level. From 1983-85 he served as the defensive line coach for the USFL's Birmingham Stallions. He returned to the college ranks in 1986 as the defensive ends coach at Temple University. Mitchell was then hired by Louisiana State University in 1987. He spent four years at LSU, coaching linebackers (1987-90). In 1990, Mitchell also served as LSU's defensive coordinator, becoming the first African-American defensive coordinator in SEC history. He spent four years at LSU, coaching linebackers (1987-90).

Mitchell's early years in coaching were spent studying under two of college football's greatest coaches, as he was the defensive line coach under Paul "Bear" Bryant at Alabama (1973-76) and Lou Holtz at Arkansas (1977-82).

A starter at defensive end for Alabama, Mitchell was the first African-American to play for the University of Alabama along with teammate Wilbur Jackson. He started all 24 games in his two seasons at Alabama, during which time the team compiled a 21-3 record, won two Southeastern Conference championships, and earned All-SEC honors twice and All-American honors in his final season. Mitchell earned a bachelor's degree in social work in 1972, and in 2009 he was elected into the Alabama Sports Hall of Fame.

Mitchell transferred to the University of Alabama from Eastern Arizona Junior College where he played on both the offensive and defensive lines from 1969-1970 and was twice-named a Junior College All-American.

Born in Mobile, Ala., Mitchell and his wife, Joyce, live in Pittsburgh.

KEITH BUTLER
Defensive Coordinator

YEARS WITH STEELERS: 19

NFL EXPERIENCE: 23

Keith Butler is in his seventh season as the team's defensive coordinator, after being promoted to the position on January 13, 2015.

Butler had previously served as the team's linebackers coach for 12 seasons (2003-14). He was originally hired by the Steelers on January 28, 2003, after serving the prior four seasons (1999-2002) as the linebackers' coach of the Cleveland Browns.

Butler and Tomlin previously worked together at Memphis in 1996, when Butler coached the linebackers, defensive ends and special teams units, and Tomlin served as the Tigers' defensive backs coach.

Since Butler arrived in Pittsburgh in 2003, he has been instrumental in the development of Steelers' linebackers. He was honored in 2008 when he was named NFL Linebacker Coach of the Year by Pro Football Weekly.

Under Butler's tutelage, Pittsburgh ranked in the top five in the NFL in 46 defensive categories in 2020. The Steelers either led or shared the NFL lead in 20 different defensive categories, including tackles for loss (103), quarterback hit percentage on pass plays (22.4%), quarterback pressures (198), sacks/game (3.50), sacks (56.0), yards lost by sack (384.0), quarterback hits (136), quarterback hits/game (8.5), fewest completions allowed (298), interceptions/game (1.13), interceptions (18), opposing QB rating (76.7), quarterback hurries (81), and passes defended (84).

Pittsburgh has registered at least one sack in 73 consecutive regular-season games, which is the longest streak in NFL history. The previous NFL record for consecutive games with at least 1.0 sack was 69 games by Tampa Bay (Oct. 10, 1999 to Nov. 9, 2003). The Steelers' league-leading 56 sacks in 2020 means that Pittsburgh has now led the NFL in sacks in four straight seasons, becoming the first team in NFL history to do so.

Defenders Minkah Fitzpatrick, Cameron Heyward and T.J. Watt were each named to the Pro Bowl and received All-Pro notoriety for their 2020 performances.

Butler guided a Steelers defense that ranked as one of the NFL's best in 2019. Pittsburgh led or tied for the League-lead in sacks (54.0), quarterback hits (11.7), takeaways (36), fumble recoveries (17) and rush TDs allowed (7). The Steelers also ranked among the NFL's top-five in interceptions (2nd, 20), interception rate (2nd, 3.89%), pass defense (3rd, 194.6), yards per play allowed (3rd, 4.74), passes defended (3rd, 83), yards per rush allowed (3rd, 3.79), forced fumbles (t-3rd, 19), tackles for loss (t-3rd, 90), opposing passer rating (4th, 80.7), pass yards per attempt allowed (4th, 6.06), total defense (5th, 304.1), scoring defense (t-5th, 18.9) and offensive TDs allowed (5th, 30). The Steelers also limited 11 opponents below 200 yards passing, which led the League.

Pittsburgh had three different players record at least 9.0 sacks in 2019 (T.J. Watt with 14.5, Bud Dupree with 11.5 and Cam Heyward with 9.0). The Steelers were the only team in the NFL with three players that recorded at least 9.0 sacks. Pittsburgh registered an NFL-best 54.0 sacks in 2019. The 54.0 sacks were the most for the Steelers in a season since 2017 – when Pittsburgh recorded 56.0.

Heyward, Watt and Fitzpatrick were all named first-team Associated Press All-Pro. Heyward was an All-Pro for the second time, while Fitzpatrick and Watt were first-time selections.

For the second consecutive year, Pittsburgh led the NFL for the most sacks during the 2018 season, with 52.0, tying with Kansas City. Along with the team's single-season franchise record of 56.0 sacks in 2017, it marked the second time in team history Pittsburgh recorded at least 50.0 sacks in back-to-back years (2001-02). The Steelers' defense limited opposing offenses to 327.2 yards per game and 96.1 rushing yards per game in 2018 — the sixth-fewest in each category during the season.

Five Steelers tallied at least 5.0 sacks in 2018, led by Watt's 13.0 quarterback takedowns. Heyward earned his first Pro Bowl selection following the 2018 season, recording 8.0 quarterback sacks.

The Steelers set a single-season franchise record and led the NFL with 56.0 sacks during Butler's third season as defensive coordinator in 2017, surpassing the team's previous mark of 55.0 set in 1994 and matched in 2001. Pittsburgh's defense held opponents to 306.9 yards per game in 2017 — the third-fewest yards allowed — and to 20 points or less in 10 games — tied as the third-most such games — in 2017.

Four of Pittsburgh's defenders recorded at least 5.0 sacks in 2017, including Heyward who produced a career and team-best of 12.0 — the most by a Steeler in a single-season since 2010 — and Watt who led all rookie linebackers with 7.0 sacks. Ryan Shazier earned his first Pro Bowl selection in 2017. He was tied for the most interceptions among AFC linebackers (3) and tied for second among all AFC defensive players in solo tackles (68) through the first 12 weeks of the season before suffering a season-ending injury.

Pittsburgh won its final seven games of 2016, thanks in large part to its defense. In the final seven weeks of the season, the Steelers defense recorded 25.0 sacks, which led the league during that span. Also during those final seven weeks, Pittsburgh's defense ranked in the top five in numerous categories, including fewest net yards allowed per game (293.6), fewest net passing yards allowed per game (197.0), and fewest points allowed per game (17.3).

In Butler's second season as defensive coordinator in 2016, three rookies, Artie Burns, Sean Davis and Javon Hargrave, all earned starting roles. It marked the first time in team history since 1971 that three defensive rookies all earned starting roles in a single season. Davis earned the Joe Greene Great Performance Award, given annually to the Steelers' top rookie.

In his first season as the Steelers' defensive coordinator in 2015, Pittsburgh's defense tied for the League lead with seven red zone takeaways. The Steelers' defense also finished in the top-10 in the league in numerous categories, including second in fewest rushing TDs allowed (6), third in sacks (48.0), fifth in fewest rushing yards allowed per game (91.2) and sixth in interceptions (17). Pittsburgh's 48.0 sacks and 17 interceptions were both the most the team registered in a single-season since 2010.

In Butler's final season coaching linebackers in 2014, the group was led by Lawrence Timmons, who was selected to his first Pro Bowl. Timmons led the Steelers with 132 tackles, which was good for second-most in the AFC.

Butler also was reunited with James Harrison in 2014. Harrison was signed early in the season due to a number of injuries to the linebacker group. During the 2016 season, Harrison became the Steelers' all-time leader in sacks.

In 2013, linebackers Timmons and Jason Worilds led a unit that lost two veterans, Larry Foote and LaMarr Woodley, to season-ending injuries early in the year. Timmons led the team with a career-high 155 tackles. Worilds led the team with a career-high 8.0 sacks.

Butler's linebackers helped Pittsburgh's defense secure the NFL's number-one ranking in 2012. Five different linebackers each recorded 4.0 or more sacks in 2012 for the first time in team history, since sacks became an official statistic in 1982. Timmons had a memorable 2012 campaign, as he became the first Steeler to lead the team or tie for the team high in tackles, interceptions and sacks since Joey Porter in 2002.

Butler's guidance helped Harrison become one of the league's most elite performers. Harrison, the 2008 NFL Defensive Player of the Year, earned two straight team MVP awards (2007-08), recorded the longest interception return in Super Bowl history (100 yards for a touchdown in Super Bowl XLIII), and he earned five straight Pro Bowl Selections (2007-11). Harrison still holds the team record for sacks in a season, a career-high 16.0 in 2008.

Butler's coaching also guided Woodley, who owns an NFL record for posting 2.0 sacks in each of his first four postseason games. Besides Harrison, Woodley is the only player in team history to record at least 10.0 sacks in three straight seasons (2008-10). The two teamed up to produce the most sacks in a single-season by a duo (27.5) in 2008.

Prior to joining the Browns' staff, Butler spent nine years coaching in the college ranks, beginning at his alma mater, Memphis, where he coached linebackers from 1990-97, and also coached defensive ends and special teams (1995-97). He then served as defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Arkansas State in 1998.

Butler was selected by the Seattle Seahawks in the second round of the 1978 NFL Draft and played linebacker for 10 seasons (1978-87), all with Seattle. He started 132-of-146 games in his career, and still ranks second on the club's all-time tackles list with 813.

A three-year starter at inside linebacker for Memphis, Butler led the team in tackles his junior and senior seasons. He finished his collegiate career with 384 tackles and seven interceptions. He was named a 1977 Associated Press All-American and played in the 1977 Senior Bowl and Blue-Gray All-Star Game.

Butler was born in Anniston, Ala. He and his wife Janet have three sons, Blake, Brandon and Brett.

MATT CANADA
Offensive Coordinator

NFL EXPERIENCE: 2

Matt Canada is entering his first season as the Steelers' offensive coordinator after being promoted to the position on January 25, 2021. He was hired by the Steelers as the quarterbacks coach on January 15, 2020 and spent one year in the role.

In 2020, under Canada's guidance, Ben Roethlisberger completed 65.6 percent of his passes (399 of 608) for 3,803 yards and 33 TD passes in 15 games. Roethlisberger ranked third in the NFL in both attempts and completions and ranked tied for seventh in the League in TDs. His 33 TD passes were the second-most he's completed in a single season in his 17-year career.

Canada owns nearly two decades of experience as both a highly successful quarterbacks' coach and offensive coordinator. Prior to his time with the Steelers, Canada's units set offensive school records at Indiana, Northern Illinois, Wisconsin, and Pittsburgh, and as the interim head coach at the University of Maryland in 2018.

Canada served as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks' coach at LSU in 2017. Tigers' quarterback Danny Etling threw 16 TDs and only 2 interceptions, while LSU finished the season No. 1 nationally in fewest turnovers. The Tigers won six of seven SEC games down the stretch and earned a trip to the Citrus Bowl.

Among the quarterbacks developed by Canada are former NC State quarterback, New England Patriots third-round NFL Draft pick and current Indianapolis Colts signal caller Jacoby Brissett, who threw for 43 TDs and just 11 interceptions over a two-year period under Canada. Canada also mentored first-team All-MAC quarterback Chandler Harnish (Northern Illinois), two-time honorable mention All-Big Ten quarterback Ben Chappell (Indiana), second-team All-Big Ten quarterback Kellen Lewis (Indiana) and fifth-round NFL Draft pick Nathan Peterman (Pitt), who threw for 27 TDs and 7 interceptions in a season when the Panthers broke a number of school records on offense.

In Canada's one season with the Panthers (2016), Pitt averaged a school-record 42 points per game, which ranked No. 10 in the nation. The Panthers led the nation in red-zone TD percentage (82%) and scored at least 28 points in all 12 regular-season games, including a 43-42 victory at eventual national champion Clemson. Pitt allowed just 9 sacks in the regular season, which was the fewest of any Power 5 program. Running back James Conner rushed for over 1,000 yards, scored 16 TDs, and earned first-team All-ACC honors. The Panthers finished the regular season 8-4 and earned a trip to the PinStripe Bowl.

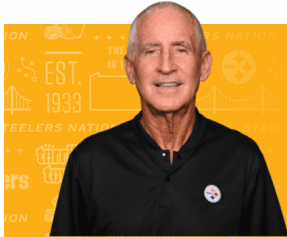

At NC State (2013-15), under Canada, the Wolfpack finished third in the ACC in scoring offense in 2015 and scored the most points (41) in the regular season against College Football Playoff finalist Clemson.

Canada served a critical role in leading Wisconsin to a Big Ten Championship and Rose Bowl berth in 2012. The Badgers routed Nebraska, 70-31, in the conference title game. Wisconsin finished No. 12 nationally in rushing offense and Montee Ball won the Doak Walker Award as the nation's top running back. Ball also earned first-team AP All-American honors.

Prior to joining the Wisconsin staff, Canada led offenses at both Northern Illinois (2003, 2011) and Indiana (2007-10). In 2011, the Huskies won the MAC championship and finished in the top 12 nationally in scoring offense, total offense and rushing offense. Canada guided an Indiana offense that scored a school-record 412 points in 2007.

DANNY SMITH

Special Teams Coordinator

YEARS WITH STEELERS: 9

NFL EXPERIENCE: 27

Danny Smith is in his ninth season with the Steelers as the special teams coordinator. Smith was hired on January 31, 2013.

Since joining the Steelers in 2015, kicker Chris Boswell is 146-of-166 overall on field goal attempts (88.0%), including 50-of-62 (80.7%) between 40-49 yards. He ranks third in field goal percentage (88.0%) among all NFL kickers with at least 160 field goal attempts since 2015. Boswell's 88.0 field goal percent ranks first in Steelers history among kickers with at least 30 field goal attempts, surpassing Shaun Suisham (2010-14: 124-141 for 87.9%).

Under the guidance of Smith, Boswell made 19 field goals on 20 attempts (95.0%) in 2020, the best field goal percentage of his career in a single season. From 2019-2020, Boswell connected on 25-straight field goal attempts, which was the longest streak in the NFL when it ended in Week 11 of 2020 at Jacksonville.

Boswell made 29 of his 31 field goal attempts (93.5%) in 2019, including 29 of 30 from inside 54 yards and 10 of 12 from 40+ yards. He ranked tied for third in the NFL in field goals made, tied for fourth in field goals attempted and fourth in points (115). Among NFL kickers with at least 30 field goal attempts, Boswell ranked second in field goal percentage.

Boswell was the only kicker in 2019 that did not miss an extra-point attempt (28 of 28) and connected on at least 90% of his field goal attempts. He was the first NFL kicker to accomplish the feat since 2017 and fifth to do so since 2015, when the extra-point attempt was moved to the 15-yard line.

Wide receiver and punt returner Dontae Johnson excelled under Smith's tutelage in 2019. The rookie led the NFL in punt-return average (12.4). Johnson was the fifth player in franchise history to lead the League and first since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger. He returned a punt 85 yards for a TD at Arizona in Week 14, which was the longest punt return for a TD in franchise history. It was the first punt-return TD for the Steelers since December 6, 2015 (Antonio Brown vs. Indianapolis). Johnson was the first Pittsburgh rookie with a punt return for a TD since December 17, 2006 (Santonio Holmes vs. Carolina).

Boswell landed 13 successful field goals in 2018, following a 2017 season where he earned his first Pro Bowl selection after a record-setting campaign. Boswell established single-season franchise records for the most field goals made (35) and total points (142) during the 2017 season, in addition to setting a team record for the most field goals made from 50 yards or further in a season with four. His 35 field goals made and 142 points surpassed the previous milestones of Norm Johnson set in 1995 (34 and 141). Boswell converted four game-winning field goal attempts — kicks within one minute of regulation — during the 2017 regular season.

In 2016, Boswell tied the franchise's regular-season record for the most field goals made in a single game with 6 (12/18 at Cincinnati). Also in that contest, he set the franchise record for most field goals made from 40 yards or longer in a single game (5). Since 1960, his 5 made field goals from 40 yards or longer are tied for the most in a single game in NFL history (Mason Crosby, 11/22/15).

Boswell also set the NFL and Steelers' record for most field goals made in a single postseason game (6) at Kansas City in the AFC Divisional Playoff. At the end of the 2016 postseason, Boswell was a perfect 15-of-15 in his playoff career. He became the first player in NFL postseason history to cover each of his first 15 field goal attempts.

Though Boswell had never kicked in an NFL game prior to his 2015 Steelers' debut, he made 29 field goals and 26 PATs for a total of 113 points in just 12 games. He set rookie/first-year single-season team records in field goals made (29), points (113) and field goal percentage (90.6). Boswell's 29 made field goals tied for fifth on the team's single-season field goals made chart.

Prior to the 2015 regular season, the Steelers lost kicker Shaun Suisham for the season in the team's first preseason contest due to a knee injury. Pittsburgh then went through two other kickers (Garrett Hartley and Josh Scobee) before signing Boswell prior to the team's Week 5 game.

Through his first five years in the NFL and with the Steelers, punter Jordan Berry owns the team's single-season regular season record for highest net punting average (40.9, 2019). He ranks third in franchise history with a 44.2 punting average (min. 100 punts) and second in team annals with 131 punts inside the opponent 20-yard line.

Berry, who recorded a franchise record 40.9 net punting average, averaged a career-best 45.5 yards per punt in 2019.

In 2018, Berry tallied a 38.8 net punting average coming off a 2017 season in which he posted the second-best mark in team history with a 39.8 average.

In 2016, Berry set the team's single regular-season record for highest net punting average (40.2) and became the seventh Steeler in team history to land 50 punts inside the opponent's 20-yard line in their career.

During the 2015 season, Berry established a Steelers' single-season record (since 1976) for the highest percentage of punts downed inside the 20-yard line (47.5). That percentage also placed him third in the NFL.

In 2014, Smith got solid efforts from Suisham and punter Brad Wing. Suisham made 29-of-32 field goal attempts and all 45 of his PATs for a total of 132 points, good for fourth in the AFC. Wing averaged 43.7 yards per punt in his debut NFL season in 2014. His gross punting average was the fifth-highest total in team history for a rookie or first-year player in a single season.

In the Steelers' Week 17 showdown with the Cincinnati Bengals, the AFC North Championship was on the line. Smith's punt return units cleared the way for Antonio Brown to return a punt 71 yards for a TD. It marked the second straight season Brown returned a punt for a TD against Cincinnati.

In Smith's first season as the Steelers' special teams coordinator in 2013, Suisham had a career year, connecting on 30-of-32 field goals, which are a career high and are tied for the third-most field goals made in a single season in Steelers history. His 93.8 field goal percentage (minimum 15 attempts) also set a new single-season team record.

In addition to being selected to the Pro Bowl as a wide receiver in 2013, Brown was also selected as a return specialist. He recorded a 67-yard punt return for a TD in Week 15 versus Cincinnati, which was one of his five returns of 40 or more yards on the season.

Prior to joining Pittsburgh, Smith served as the Washington Football Team's special teams coordinator from 2004-2012. He helped establish Washington's special teams as one of the top coverage and return units in the NFL.

Prior to joining the Washington Football Team, Smith was the special teams coordinator for the Buffalo Bills (2001-03), coached tight ends for the Detroit Lions (1999-2000), and he split duties as the defensive backs and special teams coach for the Philadelphia Eagles (1995-98).

Smith spent eight years (1987-94) as an assistant coach for Georgia Tech, where he coached running backs, wide receivers and defensive backs. He was on the staff for the Yellow Jackets' 1990 team that was named co-NCAA National Champions.

Smith played defensive back for Edinboro State College from 1972-1976, and he was elected to the Edinboro University Athletics Hall of Fame in 2007.

His first collegiate coaching position came as a graduate assistant at his alma mater in 1976. Smith also was a defensive graduate assistant coach at Clemson University (1979), The College of William & Mary (1980-83) and The Citadel, the Military College of South Carolina (1984-86).

Born and raised in Pittsburgh, Smith attended Pittsburgh Central Catholic High School. He coached at Central Catholic (1977-78), helping tutor future Pro Football Hall of Fame quarterback Dan Marino. Smith is married to Elaine, of Ambridge, Pa. They have three children, Erin, Courtney and Jason.

TERYL AUSTIN

Senior Defensive Assistant/Secondary

YEARS WITH STEELERS: 3

NFL EXPERIENCE: 18

Teryl Austin is entering his third season as the Steelers' senior defensive assistant/secondary and 18th year in the National Football League coaching ranks. He was hired on January 11, 2019.

Austin coached a group of defensive backs that helped Pittsburgh's defense rank as one of the NFL's best in 2020. The Steelers limited 11 opponents below a 60.0 completion percentage, which led all teams for the season. Pittsburgh's opponents averaged a 56.7 completion percentage and a 76.7 average quarterback ranking. Both marks not only led the NFL but were the lowest by a Pittsburgh defense since 2011. The Steelers also finished near the top of the League in interceptions (t-1st, 18), takeaways (2nd, 27), games with multiple takeaways (1st, 11) and passes defended (1st, 84).

Safety Minkah Fitzpatrick was named both a Pro-Bowler and AP All-Pro for the second season in a row. Fitzpatrick had 5 takeaways (4 interceptions and 1 fumble recovery), which ranked sixth in the NFL and tied with Steelers cornerback Mike Hilton (3 interceptions, 2 fumble recoveries).

In 2019, Pittsburgh limited 11 opponents below 200 yards passing, which led the League. The Steelers ranked top-five in the NFL in interceptions (2nd, 20), interception rate (2nd, 3.89%), pass defense (3rd, 194.6), yards per play allowed (3rd, 4.72), passes defended (3rd, 99), opposing passer rating (4th, 79.7), pass yards per attempt allowed (4th, 6.06), total defense (5th, 304.1) and scoring defense (5th, 18.9).

Minkah Fitzpatrick, who was named All-Pro, had 5 interceptions, 2 forced fumble and 3 fumble recoveries in 2019. His 8 total takeaways (interceptions and fumble recoveries) led the NFL. He recorded defensive TDs in back-to-back games, including a 96-yard interception return for a TD against the Colts (Nov. 3) and a 43-yard fumble return for TD against the Rams (Nov. 10).

Cornerback Joe Haden recorded 65 tackles, 17 passes defended, 5 interceptions, 3 tackles for loss, 1 forced fumble and 1 fumble recovery in 2019. Haden ranked tied for fourth in the NFL in passes defended, interceptions and total takeaways (5 interceptions, 1 fumble recovery).

Prior to his time in Pittsburgh, Austin served as defensive coordinator for the Detroit Lions (2014-17), before a one-year stint in the same role with the Cincinnati Bengals (2018).

As defensive coordinator for the Lions (2014-17), Austin's defensive units ranked in the Top-10 among all NFL teams in total yards per game allowed (340.3/10th), rushing yards per game allowed (100.3/8th) and the number of games in which opponents were held to 20 points or less (34/tied for 6th).

In 2017, the Lions finished third in the NFL with 32 takeaways, tied for second in fumble recoveries (13) and tied for fifth with a +10 turnover differential. In 2016, Austin's defensive squad helped the team advance to the playoffs as the unit tied for second in the NFL by holding opposing offenses to 21 points or less in 10 games. During the 2015 season, the Lions' defense registered 43 sacks to finish seventh in the NFL. In 2014, his first season as an NFL defensive coordinator, Austin coordinated one of the League's most dominant defenses, finishing second in total defense (300.9 yards per game) and third in scoring defense (17.6 points per game). The defense also finished first in the NFL in rush defense with an average of 69.3 yards allowed per game — the ninth-best opponent per-game rushing tally in NFL history.

Prior to his time with Detroit, Austin served as a defensive backs coach for a combined 10 years with three NFL teams: Seattle Seahawks (2003-06), Arizona Cardinals (2007-09) and Baltimore Ravens (2011-13). In each of his three stops as a position coach, Austin helped lead his team to Super Bowl appearances (Seattle in 2005 and Arizona in 2008), while securing a 2012 Championship with Baltimore.

From 2011-13, Austin served as the secondary coach of the Ravens, developing the secondary into an integral part of one of the NFL's most consistent defenses in recent years. In 2012, Austin's secondary helped advance the Ravens to its Super Bowl XLVII Championship run. In his first season with Baltimore, in 2011, the Ravens yielded a league-low 11 passing TDs and surrendered the third-fewest points per game (16.6), tying an NFL record by ranking in the top three in points allowed for the fourth consecutive campaign.

In 2010, Austin served at the helm of the University of Florida's defense, which recorded 22 interceptions — the fourth-most in the nation — returning four for TDs. The Gators' 538 interception return yards were the most in the nation. Austin's unit led the SEC in conference games, allowing just 310.8 yards per game, including 175.5 passing.

Three of Austin's defensive backs with the Arizona Cardinals earned Pro Bowl honors in 2009: CB Dominique Rodgers-Cromartie, S Antrel Rolle and S Adrian Wilson. Austin helped guide Rodgers-Cromartie, the team's first-round pick in 2008, to a team-best 4 interceptions in the regular season and 2 during the playoffs. In 2007, the Cardinals led the League with 6 interceptions returned for TDs and 551 interception return yards.

Austin played a key role in the development of the Seahawks' young secondary during his 2003-06 tenure in Seattle. Seattle's defense produced 67 interceptions over Austin's four-year span, tying for the 10th-most in the NFL from 2003-07.

Austin's college coaching career began as a graduate assistant at Penn State (1991-92). He held stints as the defensive backs coach at Wake Forest (1993-95), Syracuse (1996-98) and Michigan (1999-2002). Austin was a three-year starter and four-year letterman at safety for the University of Pittsburgh from 1983-87. He earned a bachelor's degree in communications from Pittsburgh in 1988. Austin played for the Montreal Machine of the World League of American Football in 1991, after attending training camps with the Washington Football Team and the Hamilton Tiger-Cats (CFL).

Austin, a native of Sharon, Pa., attended Sharon (Pa.) High School. He and his wife, April, have five children, including sons Tyler, Trey and Torin, and daughters Alexa and Alivia.

KARL DUNBAR

Defensive Line Coach

NFL EXPERIENCE: 15

Karl Dunbar is entering his fourth season as the Steelers' defensive line coach and his 15th year as a defensive line coach in the National Football League. He was hired by the Steelers on February 8, 2018.

In 2020, Dunbar's defensive line led the League in multiple categories, including sacks (56.0), quarterback hits (136) and quarterback pressures (198). The Steelers' defensive line tied a franchise record with three consecutive games with at least 5.0 sacks in Weeks 2-6 and continued their NFL record of 73 consecutive regular-season games with at least one sack. In addition, Pittsburgh's defense ranked in the top five in the NFL in six run defense categories, including tackles for loss (103). The Steelers limited both the New York Giants and Houston Texans to just 29 rushing yards.

Outside linebacker T.J. Watt worked with Dunbar on his pass rush during the season and finished 2020 with 15.0 sacks, 23 tackles for loss, and 41 quarterback hits. His 41 quarterback hits led the League in 2020 and tied for fifth since the NFL started recognizing the statistic in 2006. Defensive end Stephon Tuitt also posted double-digit sacks on the season with 11.0.

Meanwhile, Dunbar continued to work closely with defensive tackle Cameron Heyward, who, along with T.J. Watt, was selected to the 2020 Pro Bowl. Heyward added 4.0 sacks to his resume in 2020, putting him at 58.0 in his career.

In 2019, Dunbar mentored Heyward, who was named All-Pro for the second time in his career (2017). Heyward finished the season with 9.0 sacks, 22 quarterback hits, 11 tackles for a loss and six passes defended. Heyward not only led all NFL defensive tackles in stops with 83, but he also led the League in tackles by a defensive lineman. In fact, his 83 tackles were the most by a Steelers defensive lineman since Donald Evans had 84 in 1993.

Among NFL defensive tackles in '19, Heyward ranked second in quarterback hits, second in sacks and fourth in tackles for loss.

Another Dunbar protege, nose tackle Javon Hargrave, recorded 60 tackles, seven tackles for loss, six quarterback hits, 4.0 sacks and one forced fumble in 2019. Hargrave's 60 tackles were the most among all nose tackles in the NFL and ninth-most among defensive tackles. Among all NFL nose tackles in '19, Hargrave ranked tied for second in sacks, quarterback hits and tackles for loss.

Three members of Dunbar's positional group recorded at least 5.0 sacks each, led by defensive captain and first-year Pro Bowl selection Heyward. Heyward's 8.0 quarterback takedowns in 2018 led the defensive line, followed by Javon Hargrave (6.5), Stephon Tuitt (5.5) and Daniel McCullers (1.0). Pittsburgh's defense finished sixth among all NFL teams in rushing yards allowed and total yards allowed per game in 2018 (96.1 / 327.2), with just two running backs eclipsing 100 rushing yards against the Steelers on the season.

Dunbar re-entered the NFL coaching ranks after spending the two years as the defensive line coach at the University of Alabama. At Alabama, Dunbar tutored a defensive line that helped the school capture the College Football Playoff National Championship following a 2017 campaign, and advanced to the game after the 2016 season. The Crimson Tide defense led the nation in total defense (260.4 yards per game allowed) and rush defense (94.7 yards per game allowed) in 2017. In his first season at Alabama, the Crimson Tide defense led the nation in rushing defense, yielding just 63.9 yards per game and ranked fourth in sacks (3.6 sacks per game) while recording a school-record 54.0 sacks.

In 2015, Dunbar served as the defensive line coach of the Buffalo Bills, where he reunited with defensive tackle Kyle Williams whom he coached at Louisiana State University.

Dunbar oversaw a defensive line with the New York Jets for three seasons (2012-14) that featured the 2013 Associated Press Defensive Rookie of the Year — Sheldon Richardson — who also earned Pro Bowl honors in 2014. Richardson totaled 11.5 sacks during his two seasons under Dunbar's tutelage — the fifth-most among all AFC defensive tackles during that period. Muhammad Wilkerson, a Jets defensive lineman, also benefited greatly under Dunbar's guidance, posting a team-leading and career-high 10.5 sacks in 2013 — the most by a Jets defensive player since 2005. Wilkerson was named second-team All-Pro by the Associated Press and a first alternate for the Pro Bowl.

Before joining the Jets, Dunbar served as the defensive line coach of the Minnesota Vikings from 2006-11. Minnesota's defense allowed the fewest rushing yards in the NFL (84.8 yards per game) and recorded the sixth-most sacks in the League (242.0) during Dunbar's six-years with the Vikings. The Vikings' rush defense was the best in the NFL in three consecutive years from 2006-08, marking the first time since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger that a team had the number one rushing defense in three consecutive seasons.

Three Minnesota defensive linemen were selected to multiple Pro Bowls while Dunbar was the unit's position coach: defensive tackle Kevin Williams (5), defensive end Jared Allen (4) and defensive tackle Pat Williams (3). The trio earned the honor of being the first Viking triplet of defensive linemen to earn the Pro Bowl in the same season since 1969 in 2008 — a season in which they led the League in rushing defense for the third straight year.

In 2011, the Vikings' defense finish tied for the most sacks in the NFL with 50.0, an effort led by Allen's NFL-leading 22.0 sacks — just a half-sack shy of the League's single-season record.

The Vikings defense allowed just 985 rushing yards in Dunbar's second season with the franchise — setting a franchise record and ranking second in the NFL since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger behind the Ravens' 970 yards allowed in 2000.

In 2005, Dunbar coached the defensive line at Louisiana State University, which featured Buffalo Bills defensive tackle Kyle Williams.

Dunbar's first coaching stint in the NFL was with the Chicago Bears in 2004. He guided a young defensive line that included rookie first-round pick Tommie Harris and second-round selection Tank Johnson. Dunbar was the defensive line coach at Oklahoma State University from 2002-03, where he mentored future Viking Kevin Williams and helped him become the program's first defensive lineman to be a first-round selection (ninth in 2003) since Leslie O'Neal (eighth in 1986).

He began his coaching career at Opelousas (Opelousas, La.) High School in 1986 before advancing to Beau Chene (Arnaudville, La.) High School in 1997.

Dunbar, an eighth-round draft selection of the Steelers in 1990, played defensive line for two teams in his NFL career: New Orleans Saints (1992-93) and Arizona Cardinals (1994-95). He also played one season in NFL Europe (Rhein Fire, 1995).

Dunbar was a member of a Louisiana State University defense as a player while current Steelers Assistant Head Coach John Mitchell was on the Tigers' coaching staff.

Dunbar and his wife, Pamela, have three children: Karmichael Mackenzie II, Mickel Angelle and Nicolette Alyse. A native of Opelousas, La., Dunbar graduated from Louisiana State University with a bachelor's degree in criminal justice.

EDDIE FAULKNER

Running Backs Coach

NFL EXPERIENCE: 3

Eddie Faulkner is in his third season as the running backs coach for the Steelers, after being hired on January 17, 2019.

In 2020, Faulkner's running backs included James Conner, who ran for 721 yards on 169 carries and six touchdowns. Conner registered a TD run in four consecutive games; he is the first Steeler to do so since Le'Veon Bell had a five-game TD streak over the 2013-14 seasons. He also recorded three 100+ yard games, including two consecutively, putting him at seventh all-time in Steelers' history for most 100-yard rushing games.

Prior to joining the Steelers, Faulkner spent six years, 2013-18, at North Carolina State University as the school's tight ends/fullbacks/special teams coordinator. In 2017, Faulkner was selected to participate in the NCAA Champion Forum as one of eight minority coaches in the nation chosen to participate in the professional development opportunity.

While at N.C. State, Faulkner coached the program's all-time receptions leader and current Steeler, running back Jaylen Samuels, who finished his career with 202 catches while earning first-team All-Atlantic Coast Conference honors in 2015 and in 2017. In 2017, Samuels finished third in the conference with 16 TDs — the third-most in a season by a N.C. State footballer. Wolfpack running back Reggie Gallaspy II tied for fifth in the nation with 19 total TDs in 2018, scoring 18 on the ground.

Faulkner spent the 2012 season at the University of Wisconsin coaching the Badgers' tight ends. Under Faulkner's guidance, then junior Jacob Pederson won All-Big Ten honors and the League's Kwalick-Clark Tight End of the Year award, finishing as the school's second leading receiver.

In 2011, Faulkner held the running backs/special teams coordinator title at Northern Illinois University, where he mentored All-Mid-American Conference tailback Jasmin Hopkins. Hopkins produced 956 rushing yards and 15 TDs in 187 carries as the school's 234.1 rushing yards per game average ranked 12th in the nation.

Following a 2002 season as the running backs coach at Anderson University, Faulkner spent the 2003-10 campaigns at Ball State University, serving as a graduate assistant (2003-04), running backs/special teams (2005-08) and the offensive coordinator/running backs (2009-10), including a stint as the school's interim head coach at the end of the 2010 season.

While he was at Ball State, the Cardinals secured two MAC West Division championships and advanced to back-to-back bowl games for the first time in program history. In 2008, Ball State produced an undefeated regular-season record as tailback MiQuale Lewis tallied a school-record 1,736 rushing yards. Faulkner coached a duo to become the first in a single game in NCAA history to tally 500 rushing yards on Oct. 24, 2009 vs. Eastern Michigan (MiQuale Lewis: 301 and Cory Sykes: 203).

Faulkner, a member of two Big Ten championship teams as Wisconsin's running back, rushed for 1,064 yards and 7 TDs in his collegiate career from 1996-2000. During his Badgers' career, the team advanced to five consecutive bowl games, including back-to-back Rose Bowl appearances in 1999 and 2000. He spent the 2001 training camp with the Steelers as an undrafted free agent and the 2002 preseason with the Edmonton Eskimos of the Canadian Football League.

IKE HILLIARD

Wide Receivers Coach

NFL EXPERIENCE: 11

Ike Hilliard is in his second season as the Steelers wide receivers coach in 2021 and 11th year as a wide receivers coach in the National Football League. Hilliard was hired by Pittsburgh on February 18, 2020.

During the 2020 season, Hilliard's first in Pittsburgh, the Steelers became just the seventh team in NFL history to have five different players catch at least five touchdown passes in a single season; wide receiver Chase Claypool (9), wide receiver JuJu Smith-Schuster (9), wide receiver Diontae Johnson (7), wide receiver James Washington (5) and tight end Eric Ebron (5).

Claypool led all rookie receivers in touchdown catches (9), while finishing second among rookies in total touchdowns (11) and fourth among rookies in receiving yards (873).

Hilliard served as the wide receivers coach in Washington for seven seasons over two different stints (2012, 2014-19). He has also served as the wide receivers coach in Buffalo (2013) and assistant wide receivers coach in Miami (2011).

Under Hilliard's tutelage in 2019, wideout Terry McLaurin had one of the top rookie receiving seasons in Washington Football Team history. He led Washington in all three major receiving categories. McLaurin registered 58 catches for 919 yards and 7 TD receptions in 14 games. His 919 receiving yards and 7 TDs ranked second in franchise rookie history. Among all NFL rookies, McLaurin ranked second in receiving yards, tied for second in receptions and tied for third in TD receptions. He also ranked second in yards per catch (15.8) among rookies with at least 20 receptions.

In 2018, Hilliard played a major role in wide receiver Josh Doctson setting single season career highs in receptions (44) and receiving yards (532). He also oversaw a season in which Jamison Crowder set a single season high in yards per reception with a mark of 13.4 and he was instrumental in the development of rookie wide receiver Trey Quinn who had success in the limited action he saw due to injury.

Hilliard guided a young wide receiver corps in 2017 that helped quarterback Kirk Cousins become the first player in team history to record a third consecutive 4,000-yard passing season. Jamison Crowder led Washington in receptions (66) and receiving yards (789), and at age 24 on the final day of the calendar year, became the youngest player to lead Washington in receptions since Gary Clark (24) in 1986. Meanwhile, second-year pro Josh Doctson, who had been limited by injury to only two games in his rookie campaign, led Washington with six receiving TDs, and fourth-year pro Ryan Grant recorded career highs in receptions (45), receiving yards (573) and receiving TDs (four).

Hilliard's group played a major role in Washington's record-setting offense in 2016, a unit that set single-season team records in yards per game (403.4), yards per play (6.40), net passing yards (4,758), completions (407), passing first downs (226) and 500-yard games (three). Veteran wideouts Pierre Garçon (1,041) and DeSean Jackson (1,005) both eclipsed the 1,000-yard mark on the season, representing the first time Washington featured multiple 1,000-yard receivers since 1999 (Albert Connell and Michael Westbrook). Meanwhile, in his second season, Crowder took another step as one of the league's most underrated slot receivers, leading Washington with 7 TD receptions while contributing 847 receiving yards on 67 receptions.

During Washington's NFC East championship season in 2015, Hilliard coached a group that prominently featured two prolific veterans (Garçon and Jackson) and two young players in their first or second NFL seasons (Crowder and Ryan Grant, respectively). Garçon posted 72 receptions, the second-highest total of his career, while Jackson recorded 528 receiving yards and 4 TDs despite being limited by injury to nine games. Hilliard's guidance also helped Crowder to a Washington rookie record 59 receptions in 2015.

In his return to Washington in 2014, Hilliard managed the incorporation of Jackson into the team's offense after joining the team as a free agent. Jackson led Washington with 1,169 receiving yards on 56 receptions, becoming the fifth member of Washington to post 1,000 receiving yards in his first season in Washington (Bobby Mitchell in 1962, Henry Ellard in 1994, Laveranues Coles in 2003 and Santana Moss in 2005). Jackson averaged an NFL-best 20.9 yards per reception and was the first member of Washington to finish a season as the NFL leader in yards per reception since Henry Ellard (19.5 in 1996).

Hilliard served as wide receivers coach for the Buffalo Bills in 2013, helping mold a young group that included rookie second-round pick Robert Woods (40 receptions for 587 yards with three TDs) and rookie third-round pick Marquise Goodwin (17 receptions for 283 yards with three TDs).

In his first stint with Washington in 2012, Hilliard guided the team's receivers to the franchise's first division title since 1999. He incorporated free agents Pierre Garçon and Joshua Morgan into the offense, helping Garçon lead the team in receiving yards (633 in only 10 games) and helping Morgan lead Washington in receptions (48). Hilliard also oversaw the resurgence of veteran slot receiver Santana Moss, who caught 41 passes for 573 yards and 8 TDs, his most since recording 9 receiving TDs in his first season in Washington in 2005. The group's toughness on the perimeter also helped the offense rush for a League-best 2,709 yards, a franchise record.

In 2011, Hilliard served as the assistant wide receivers coach for the Miami Dolphins. He helped in the development of wide receiver Brandon Marshall, who was selected for his third Pro Bowl and first as a member of the Dolphins. Additionally, Marshall finished third in the AFC in receiving yards with 1,214 and recorded his fifth-consecutive 1,000-plus yard season.

Prior to joining the Dolphins, Hilliard spent two seasons coaching for the Florida Tuskers of the United Football League. Hilliard worked as a volunteer coach with the Tuskers in 2009 and was elevated to the position of Receivers Coach for 2010.

As a player, Hilliard was a first-round selection in the 1997 NFL Draft (No. 7 overall). He played 12 seasons, eight with the New York Giants (1997-2004) and four with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (2005-08). In 161 career games (106 starts), Hilliard caught 546 passes for 6,397 yards and 35 TDs.

Hilliard played collegiately at the University of Florida from 1994-96, catching 126 passes for 2,214 yards and 26 TDs. He earned first-team All-SEC and All-American honors as a junior. In the final game that season, he recorded 7 catches for 150 yards and 3 TDs to help lead the Gators to a 52-20 Sugar Bowl win to secure the school's first national championship.

Hilliard is a native of Patterson, La. He and his wife, Lourdes, have five children, Kye, Kaly, Leila, Ilysa and Jewels.

Adrian Klemm is in his first season as the Steelers offensive line coach, after spending two seasons as the team’s assistant offensive line coach. He was hired by Pittsburgh on February 15, 2019.

In 2020, Klemm’s second season assisting offensive line coach Shaun Sarrett, the Steelers offensive line allowed just 14 sacks, the fewest by any franchise in a single season since 1982 when sacks became an official statistic. Pittsburgh’s 2020 season included a five-game streak where the team did not allow a single sack, which ties for the third longest such streak since 1982.

In Klemm’s first season assisting the Steelers offensive line, two Pittsburgh offensive linemen — David DeCastro and Maurkice Pouncey — were selected to the Pro Bowl, an honor each received for the third consecutive year.

Klemm, a three-time Super Bowl champion during his NFL playing career, joined the Steelers after nine seasons in the collegiate ranks. Most recently, Klemm was the Associated Head Coach/Run Game Coordinator/Offensive Line at UCLA from 2012-16.

While at UCLA, Klemm was part of an offense that broke numerous records, including single-season pass yards (3,860), rush yards (2,761), scoring (482 points) and total offense (6,531 yards). He directed a running game that produced the nation’s ninth-best rusher. In 2014, UCLA set the record for the least amount of sacks allowed in a season in program history and featured the leading rusher in the PAC-12 Conference. In 2015, Klemm was responsible for recruiting the No. 1 offensive line class in the country. He also received Pac-12 Conference Recruiter of the Year accolades. Klemm coached two All-American offensive linemen, eight All Pac-12 Conference players and several Freshman All-Americans, as well as Morris Trophy recipient Xavier Su’a-Filo, while a member of the Bruins’ staff.

Prior to his arrival at UCLA, the Bruins hadn’t had an offensive lineman selected in the NFL Draft since 1999. During his tenure, Klemm mentored seven NFL Draft picks and four undrafted free agents that made a team’s 53-man roster.

Klemm began his collegiate coaching career as a graduate assistant at Southern Methodist University in 2008, before serving as the program’s Offensive Line Coach/Recruiting Coordinator from 2009-11. SMU featured the nation’s seventh-leading rusher in Zach Line, who finished a campaign with 1,494 rushing yards — the second-best single-season tally in school history (Eric Dickerson, 1982). During Klemm’s SMU tenure, the football team set numerous offensive records in school history, including total offense, passing yards and first downs while producing the first collegiate 1,000-yard rusher and back-to-back 1,000-yard rushers under Head Coach June Jones.

Klemm coached six different offensive linemen to All-Conference honors, along with two being selected in the NFL Draft, including former Steelers offensive lineman Kelvin Beachum. Klemm was tabbed Conference USA Recruiter of the Year and named the Non-BCS National Recruiter of the Year.

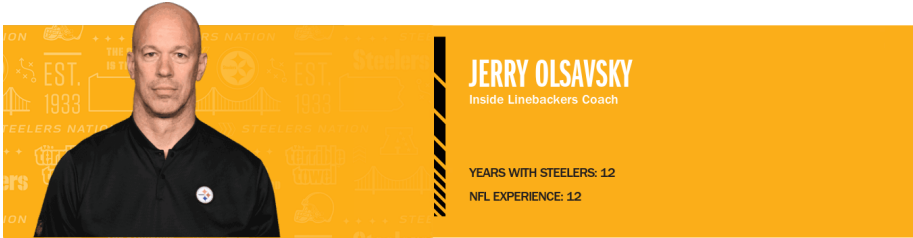

Klemm was a four-year starter at the University of Hawaii (1996-99) and a part of the biggest turnaround in NCAA history. Hawaii improved from 0-12 to 9-4 to win a bowl game during the 1999 season. Following his senior year, Klemm was selected as the starting left tackle in the Senior Bowl and received invitations to the East-West Shrine Game and the Hula Bowl. He earned a bachelor’s degree in liberal arts from Excelsior College in 2008.

Klemm was selected by the New England Patriots in the second-round of the 2000 NFL Draft, where he spent the first five of his seven NFL seasons. He was a member of three Patriots Super Bowl Championship teams (XXXVI, XXXVII and XXXIX) before joining the Green Bay Packers in 2005.

A native of Los Angeles, Calif., Klemm has two sons, Jalen and Nikko.

Jerry Olsavsky is in his seventh season as the team’s inside linebackers coach. Olsavsky was promoted to his current position on February 6, 2015. Olsavsky’s inside linebackers room developed a next-man-up mentality in 2020 with a season-ending injury to 2019 first-round pick Devin Bush in Week 6, followed by a Week 13 injury to his replacement, Robert Spillane, which held Spillane out through the end of the regular season.

Despite the personnel changes, the inside linebacking corps continued to play at a high level, as the defense finished top-five in the League in 46 defensive categories.

Olsavsky oversaw the development of rookie Devin Bush in 2019. He set a franchise rookie record with 109 tackles, which is the most by a Steeler in a season since Lawrence Timmons had 114 in 2016. Bush was the only NFL rookie with a fumble recovery (4), interception (2), forced fumble (1) and 100 or more tackles (109).

Bush was the first NFL rookie with at least 100 tackles, 4 fumble recoveries, 2 interceptions, 1 forced fumble and 1.0 sack in the same season since Bennie Blades of the Detroit Lions in 1988. He also was the first NFL rookie since the 1970 NFL-AFL merger with at least 85 tackles, 4 fumble recoveries, 2 interceptions and 1 TD fumble return in a season.

Two veteran inside linebackers and one new face to the Steelers’ defensive unit led Olsavsky’s room in 2018. Vince Williams led all linebackers with 76 total tackles (50 solo) starting all of his 14 games played, adding 4.5 sacks and 10 quarterback hits. Jon Bostic made 73 tackles (46 solo) in his first year with the Steelers, along with 2.5 sacks.

The inside linebacker unit was faced with adversity three quarters of the way through the 2017 season. Ryan Shazier, who earned his first Pro Bowl selection, was tied for the most interceptions among AFC linebackers (3), tied for second among all AFC defensive players in solo tackles (68) and leading all NFL linebackers with 11 passes defended before he suffered a season-ending injury in Week 13. Despite losing Shazier, the inside linebacking corps continued to play at a high level.

Williams finished second on the Steelers with a career-high 8.0 sacks and registered a single-season best 88 tackles to finish third on the team’s defense while starting all 16 regular-season games.

Tyler Matakevich scored the team’s first points of the 2017 season by recovering a blocked punt in the end zone in Week 1. He led the special teams unit in tackles for the second consecutive season with 14.

In 2016, the inside linebacker unit was led by Shazier and Timmons. Including the postseason, Shazier totaled 105 tackles, 3.5 sacks, 5 interceptions, 3 forced fumbles and 1 fumble recovery. He was named a Pro Bowl alternate for his efforts.

Counting the postseason, Timmons totaled 143 tackles, 4.5 sacks, 2 interceptions and 1 forced fumble. The 2016 season marked the fifth straight year Timmons recorded at least 100 tackles, and it marked the fourth straight season that he led the team in tackles.

Olsavsky also guided Matakevich, a rookie inside linebacker, who led the Steelers with 12 special teams tackles during the 2016 regular season.

In 2015, Shazier finished second on the team in tackles, while adding 3.5 sacks and 2 forced fumbles, despite missing four games due to various injuries. In Week 2 vs. San Francisco, Shazier had a breakout game, recording 15 tackles, 1.0 sack, 1 forced fumble and 1 fumble recovery. Shazier also led the team in tackles (20) and forced fumbles (2) during the postseason.

Another member of Olsavsky’s group, Williams, led the team with 11 tackles on special teams during the 2015 regular season.

Prior to his promotion, Olsavsky was a defensive assistant for five seasons. He assisted all areas of the defensive staff in their daily operations. In Olsavsky’s five years as a defensive assistant, the Steelers’ defense ranked top-two in the league in total defense three times, including back-to-back years (2011-12) as the number-one ranked defense.

A 10-year NFL veteran, Olsavsky spent seven seasons coaching linebackers for Youngstown State University. Prior to coaching at Youngstown State, Olsavsky spent one year as an assistant strength coach at the University of North Carolina. He also coached at his alma mater, Chaney High School in Youngstown and at Duquesne University.

Olsavsky, was selected by the Steelers in the 10th round (258th overall) of the 1989 NFL Draft, and played linebacker from 1989-97. He saw action in 108 games for the Steelers, making 227 tackles, while also excelling on special teams. Olsavsky battled back from a career threatening knee injury in 1993 and helped lead the Steelers to a berth in Super Bowl XXX. In 1995, he was the recipient of the Steelers’ Ed Block Courage Award, given annually to the Steeler that overcomes many obstacles to achieve great success on the field. Olsavsky finished his playing career in 1998 with the Baltimore Ravens.

Playing collegiately at the University of Pittsburgh, Olsavsky was a first-team Kodak All-American as a senior in 1988, when he made 129 tackles. He became the Panthers’ first defensive player since 1976 to record more than 100 tackles in three consecutive seasons. He earned his degree in information science in 1990.

Olsavsky was born in Youngstown, Ohio, and he resides in Pittsburgh with his three children, Joseph, Emma and Dominic.

In 2003, Roberts accepted his first NFL position as the tight ends coach for the Jacksonville Jaguars, guiding Marcedes Lewis as a rookie.

Roberts began his coaching career in 1998 at Florida Atlantic University. He spent the first two years recruiting prior to the program’s inaugural season in 2000. Roberts coached tight ends for two seasons (2000-01) before coaching the Owls’ wide receivers in 2002.

MIKE SULLIVAN

Quarterbacks Coach

YEARS WITH STEELERS: 1

NFL EXPERIENCE: 17

Mike Sullivan is in his first year as the team's quarterbacks coach. He was hired on Feb. 8, 2021.

Sullivan will enter his 17th season as an NFL coach in 2021. He has tutored five players that reached the Pro Bowl, including Odell Beckham Jr. (2016), Vincent Jackson (2012), Eli Manning (2011, '15), Doug Martin (2012) and Steve Smith (2009).

Sullivan has coached quarterbacks or coordinated offenses in Denver (2018), New York Giants (2010-11, 2015-17) and Tampa Bay (2012-13). Sullivan also coached wide receivers in the League with the New York Giants (2004-09). He started coaching in the NFL with Jacksonville as a defensive quality control (2002) and offensive assistant (2003).

Sullivan, who most recently was the Director of Recruiting for Army West Point, served as offensive coordinator for two years with the Giants under head coach Ben McAdoo. In 2017, Sullivan took over offensive play-calling for the team in Week 6 and continued that responsibility through the remainder of the year.

In his first season as offensive coordinator for the Giants in 2016, New York finished 11-5. Quarterback Eli Manning recorded his fifth 4,000-yard season under Sullivan and wide receiver Odell Beckham Jr. ranked third in the NFL with 1,367 receiving yards.

Before his second stint with the Giants, Sullivan spent two seasons as offensive coordinator for the Buccaneers. Tampa Bay's 2012 squad featured a 4,000-yard passer (Josh Freeman - 4,065 yards), a 1,000-yard rusher (Doug Martin - 1,454 yards) and a 1,000-yard receiver (Vincent Jackson - 1,384 yards). The Bucs finished that season ranked ninth in total offense, setting a franchise record by averaging 363.8 yards/game.

Sullivan won two Super Bowls—XLII (2007) and XLVI (2011)—during his first eight seasons with the Giants. He coached wide receivers for six seasons before being elevated to quarterbacks coach.

In the Giants' 2011 Super Bowl season—Manning's second year working with Sullivan—the quarterback set career highs in passing yards (4,933) and yards/attempt (8.4). In New York's four playoff games, Manning averaged more than 300 yards/game and finished the postseason with nine TDs against just one interception.

As wide receivers coach for the Giants, Sullivan worked with a pair of 1,000-yard receivers in Plaxico Burres (2005, '07) and Steve Smith (2009).

Sullivan coached for eight seasons in the collegiate ranks, beginning with a graduate assistant post at Humboldt State University in 1993. He coached linebackers at his alma mater, Army, from 1995-96 before moving on to coach defensive backs at Youngstown State University from 1997-98.

Sullivan returned to Army to coach defensive backs from 1999-2000 and then worked for one season as defensive backs coach at Ohio University before making a move to the NFL.

A former defensive back at Army, Sullivan is a graduate of the U.S. Army Airborne, Ranger and Air Assault schools.

CHRIS MORGAN

Assistant Offensive Line Coach

YEARS WITH STEELERS: 1

NFL EXPERIENCE: 12

Chris Morgan is in his first year as the team's assistant offensive line coach. He was hired on Feb. 8, 2021.

Morgan, who has coached in two Super Bowls, will enter his 13th as an NFL offensive line coach. He joins the Steelers after a six-year stint with Atlanta (2015-20), where he served as the Falcons offensive line coach (2015-17), run game coordinator/offensive line (2018) and offensive line coach (2019-20). Morgan was also an assistant offensive line coach in Seattle (2014), Washington (2011-13) and Oakland (2009-10).

In 2019, Morgan coached an offensive line whose production allowed the offense to average 379.7 yards per game, the fifth-most in the NFL, and average 294.6 passing yards per game, the third-highest average in the league.

The Falcons selected two offensive linemen in the first round of the 2019 Draft, guard Chris Lindstrom (16th) and tackle Kaleb McGary (31st). Under Morgan's guidance, both players earned starting roles coming out of training camp. Lindstrom was unfortunately sidelined after suffering an injury in Week 1, but he would return, and the duo started the last four games of the season, showing the growth and potential that should solidify the right side of the offensive line for years to come.

In 2018, Morgan coached an offensive line that blocked for an offense that averaged 389.1 yards per game, the sixth-most yards per game in the league. The offensive line's blocking was also a major part in the offense averaging 290.8 passing yards per game, which was the fourth-highest average in the NFL.

Under Morgan's guidance, the offensive line was able to keep quarterback Matt Ryan upright and able to throw for 4,294 yards and 35 touchdowns. The offensive line's production made it possible for the Falcons to average 6.16 yards per play in 2018, which was the fifth most in the NFL and the second-highest yards per play average in franchise history.

Morgan continued to oversee the growth of center Alex Mack, who was selected to his sixth Pro Bowl – his fourth straight selection. Tackle Jake Matthews was also selected to his first Pro Bowl under Morgan's guidance in 2018 as well.

In 2017, Morgan coached an offensive line that only allowed 24 sacks, which was tied for the third-lowest amount in the NFL. Morgan's offensive line was also a catalyst for the eighth-best offense in the league. The Falcons offense averaged 364.8 yards per game and blocked for quarterback Matt Ryan who averaged 249.4 passing yards per game, which was also the eighth highest in the league. Their blocking also helped the 10-year veteran reach his seventh straight 4,000 passing yard season.

Morgan coached Mack who was selected to his third consecutive Pro Bowl after anchoring the offensive line for the second year in Atlanta. In 2017, Morgan's offensive line showed its ability to sustain blocks by springing the offense for 230 big plays (plays that are 10+ yards) and allowing Ryan to average 7.8 yards per pass attempt, both of which were the fifth in their categories.

Morgan's teaching was essential in helping the offensive line block for the Falcons running backs, who averaged 4.3 yards per carry, which was eighth in the NFL in 2017. The offensive line also blocked for an offense that was third in the NFL in explosive runs (12+ yards-or-more).

During his second season with the Falcons, Morgan's offensive line blocked for Ryan, who was awarded the NFL MVP award at the end of the 2016 season. The offensive line was a major reason why the team averaged a league-high and franchise-high 33.8 points per game. The Falcons broke the franchise record for most points scored in a season in Week 15, with the help of the offensive line, when they scored 540 total points on the season, which tied them with the 2000 St. Louis Rams for the eighth-most points scored in a season.

The offensive line blocked for Ryan, who threw for a career and franchise-high 4,944 yards and 38 touchdowns. Ryan also had a career-high 117.1 passer rating, which was the fifth-best all-time passer rating. Morgan also helped coach Mack, who was selected to his fourth Pro Bowl.

Morgan's offensive line also helped pave the way for a rushing attack that racked up 1,928 yards on the season, which was fifth in the league in 2016. Under his guidance, the offensive line blocked for running back Devonta Freeman, who finished in the top 10 in rushing for the second year in a row and made it to his second consecutive Pro Bowl.

During Morgan's first year in 2015, his offensive line helped produce the Falcons' first 1,000-yard rusher since 2011, while giving up the eighth-fewest sacks in the league last year. The offensive line also helped block for an offense that recorded 374.1 yards per game, which was seventh in the NFL.

Morgan spent the 2014 season as assistant offensive line coach for the Seattle Seahawks. In 2014, Seattle used eight different starting combinations on the offensive line, including playoffs, and still led the NFL in rushing yards, recording a franchise-high 2,762 yards. In addition to leading the league in rushing last season, the Seahawks offensive line also assisted in helping Seattle lead the NFL in explosive plays (135) and explosive running plays (61) while paving the way to Super Bowl XLIX.

Prior to arriving in Seattle, Morgan served as an assistant offensive line coach with the Washington Football Team (2011-13) and Oakland Raiders (2009-10). In 2012, Morgan helped direct a unit that rushed for a team-record 2,709 yards, marking the franchise's first team rushing crown since 1933 and their club's first NFC East title since 1999. Also during his time with the Football Team, tackle Trent Williams was selected to two consecutive Pro Bowls in 2012 and 2013.

In 2010, Oakland ranked 10th in the NFL in yards per game (356.6) and sixth in points per game (25.6). Prior to Oakland, Morgan spent the previous five seasons coaching at the high school level in his native Texas, serving as offensive line coach, special teams coordinator, offensive coordinator and assistant head coach at Westfield High School in Houston.

Morgan served as an offensive graduate assistant at the University of Idaho after two years as an assistant coach at Copperas Cove (Texas) High. He played offensive line at the University of Colorado from 1995-1999 and earned his master's degree in educational leadership at Idaho.
